CAPITAL BUDGET.

A SMALL PALE.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The offerings of bonds to the government continue light and it is now thought that the balance of the $14,000,000 called for by the circular of September 22nd, will not be secured by the 8th instant. It is therefore likely that the period fixed for the purchase of bonds for the sinking fund may be extended a few days, or that Secretary Fairchild may decide to allow the offer to remain open indefinitely until the required amount shall have been obtained. Today's offerings aggregated $158,500 of which $154,400 were 4 1/2's and $14,500 4 per cents.

TREASURY INCREASE.
A statement prepared at the treasury department shows that during the month of September there was a net increase of $23,350,375 in circulation and a net increase of $7,264,126 in the cash in the treasury.

THE OLD STORY.

The old story that English syndicates are resorting to extreme measures to dispossess settlers from syndicate lands purchased from western roads was revived yesterday. No official information has been received on the subject at the interior department.

DENIES THE APPLICATION.

Commissioner Sparks, of the general land office, has received from the surveyor general of Arizona, a report of his action on the application made to his office for a preliminary survey of the old Perito private land claim in that territory, which embraces 4,800,000 acres. The surveyor general declines to entertain the application, for the reason that the land is held by the office of the usual appropriation or the investigation of private land claims, and as an investigation would be necessary in this case the application is denied. This claim is the same which Commissioner Sparks disallowed a length in his annual report of 1885, and in which it is believed by the commissioner, he fully established its fraudulent character.

EXCEPT ON BUSINESS.

The interior department has decided to adhere to the rule already in force not to issue permits to persons to enter the Indian Territory for hunting, fishing, etc., and has recently refused to issue permits on several requests. The action of the department is influenced by the objections of the Indians. Persons having important business in the Territory can procure permits as heretofore.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CLUB.

The National Republican club of the District of Columbia perfected its permanent organization this evening by the election of Hon. A. M. Clapp, permanent president, C. H. Richards, major A. K. Richards, treasurer, and vice-presidents to represent each state and territory and the District of Columbia. The vice-presidents are chiefly senators and representatives in congress. This is a distinctly political club. There has heretofore been no organization of the kind in this city except the small state associations composed of office holders, although there are two prominent Democratic clubs one of which has been in existence for many years.

Fired Buckshot at Them.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 4.—John Sullivan, who lives in a shanty near the corner of Henry and Margaret streets, quarreled with his sons this afternoon, one of whom was recently arrested for burglary. During the row the boys set upon the old man and beat him unmercifully. The noise attracted large crowds of children who climbed upon the fence to see the fight. The old man finally tore himself away from his assailants, and running into his house, returning with a double-barreled shot-gun which he aimed and fired at random. A shower of bullets fell amidst the children, many of whom fell upon the ground with screams of pain. John Lewis, Alice Gordon and Margaret Tierney were shot in the legs and arms, and the Gordon girl was so badly wounded that it is thought she cannot possibly recover.

The Military Encampment.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Tonight at Battery D army the residents of Chicago gave a reception to the Swedish national hymn, and troops who are participating in the international encampment. About 2,000 people were present. Consul Vacker delivered a brief speech in Swedish, and was followed by Mayor Roche who made an address of welcome. The united Scandinavian singing societies then rendered the Swedish national hymn, and Colonel Littlejohn, of the Swedish army, responded to the mayor's welcome. He said that ever since his comrades had set foot upon American soil they had met with constant surprises, being over so short a time he had ceased to wonder that the countrymen loved America with a love greater than they had for their fatherland. He was proud to see his countrymen doing so nobly in the country of their adoption. They were good citizens at home and must be good citizens abroad.

Murder Will Out.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 4.—In December, 1885, Henry Kemper was found dead early one morning in his grocery store on Barr street. No clue to the murderer could be found. A negro was tried for the crime but acquitted. Now comes the story that within a day or two a daughter of Kemper, living in Dayton, Ohio, has received a letter from her brother John confessing that he murdered his father for money. The story is that he was fatally injured on the Southern railroad and made the confession supposing he was about to die. Officers are making investigations. John Kemper has been living at Denver, Colorado, since the murder, but came here two weeks ago for a few days.

Topeka Topics.

Topeka, Oct. 4.—Judge E. S. Torrence, of the Thirtieth district, which comprises Elk, Chautauque and Cowley counties, tendered his resignation to the governor today to take effect October 15, due to the pressure of private business. He will be succeeded by Marquis G. Troup, of Winfield, whose commission was signed by the governor today. Judge Troup is 46 years old and has been a resident of Cowley county since 1870, during which time he has held the office of county clerk for six years and that of county auditor for three years. He was admitted to the bar in 1873. His appointment meets with general approval. The Temperance Mutual Benefit Union of this city, whose authority to do business was recently revoked by the state superintendent of insurance, has entered into a stipulation with the superior general, on behalf of the superior, to accept of a case pending the order of revocation of authority to do business as has been suspended until December 25. The company agrees to wind up its business in or before that time. The mandamus proceedings recently begun by the company against the superintendent of insurance will be discontinued.

An application was made before Judge Foster in the United States court today, on behalf of Margaret Fuller, for the appointment of a receiver of the company. The court took the matter under advisement. The petitioners claim a case pending against the Temperance Mutual Benefit Union in the federal court during the past year for a claim for $1,250.

The Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska Railroad company has issued a special tariff covering the shipments of wheat, flaxseed, and other grain, in car loads, from points on the line in Nebraska to Kansas City, from 12 to 15 cents per hundred on wheat and flaxseed and 10 to 13 cents on other grain, being a reduction of from 1 to 3 cents per hundred pounds. Tariffs making similar reductions on shipments from Nebraska to Topeka, and St. Joseph have also been issued.

The railroads in Kansas have also issued a special distance tariff covering corn in car loads, which took effect October 1, and will continue until April 30 next, between any stations on their lines within the state, but will not apply to or from any point within twenty miles of the Missouri river. ## A DIAMOND STEAL

And the Remarkable Manner in Which They Were Recovered.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 4.—Sixteen thousand dollars worth of diamonds were stolen from Moses Bensinger, manager of the Brunswick Balke Billiard company, in a very mysterious manner some months ago. Their recovery this week makes a most remarkable story. Soon after his loss the shrewdest detectives in town were given the slight clues that had been lent by the robbers, but in spite of their best efforts, spurred on by promises of large reward, not the least success resulted. Then Bensinger concluded to advertise. In the personal columns of a daily paper he published a "personal" setting forth the fact of the diamond robbery and offering to pay $2,500 for their return, no questions asked. For a few days he heard nothing in response to his advertisement. Then came a curious note which opened the way for further correspondence about the restoration of the stolen gems. The letters Mr. Bensinger received were in different hand-writings, which led him to believe that they were confederates concerned in the robbery. Finally it was agreed upon that Bensinger should send an agent to Foreman Bros. bank on LaSalle street, where the other parties were to have a representative, who was to return the diamonds and was to receive a check for the amount of $2,500. The Bensinger man was on the ground early and was duly met by a young man who handed him a package, but declined the proffered check. When Bensinger examined the package he found that his collection of sparklers were intact and that none had been stolen. He was so comforted by the recovery that he was not disturbed. He began to receive threatening letters which demanded $5,000 of cool cash, as an alternative his elegant residence on the north side was to be burned. His office taken, and he was to suffer a variety of other ways. Besides, his telephone number was often called to convey the same cheering intelligence to him. It was a deep bass voice that whispered thus ominously over the wires. The strange voice even told Mr. Bensinger that if he didn't speedily and quietly comply with the demand, on the occasion of his daughter's marriage he (the stranger) would use an infernal machine at the Bensinger mansion on that festive occasion and blow them all to smithereens. By this time Mr. Bensinger had become thoroughly alarmed. He began to treat with the unknown man. He was told that he was to surrender with their aid succeeded in discovering the identity of his persecutor. It wasn't a man with a big bass voice, but an office boy employed by a board of trade man. The boy after stealing the diamonds had, with his accomplice, concealed them in the vault of the office where he worked. After a little score the boys buried their spoils in the yard, and there they kept them until the close of the negotiations for their return. The boys had themselves conducted the negotiations, as they had no confederates. Their names are withheld.
